Dear Sir,

Solar Energy – Rise of the Sun

We are in receipt of a copy of the presentation on “Solar Energy: Rise of the Sun”. The presentation is succinct, yet informative, and has elucidated the current situation and the tremendous potential of the Solar Power sector in a tropical country like India. The presentation is useful, given the fact that large parts of our country still faces power deficit, and generating awareness on green energy sources is perhaps the best possible solution. I would like to share the content of the presentation with my colleagues in the organization, as well.

I appreciate the efforts in sharing this knowledge through this presentation with us.

Best Regards,

Yours faithfully,

S. Prahalathan
